London, W. June, 1881.

Sir,

Kindly oblige me by furnishing on the enclosed memorandum the necessary particulars for enabling me to compile a brief biographical sketch of yourself for insertion in the new "Companionship" section of "Debrett".

More than 950 companions out of 1100 have courteously supplied me with details of their biographies.

This fact will I hope be deemed sufficient warrant for your not treating this request with contempt.

As the section will substantially increase the cost of producing the book I shall be much obliged if you will sign the accompanying order-form and return it to me.

An early reply will be esteemed.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Robert H. Blair, LL.D.
(Editor of "Debrett").

Dr.

Kindly state me by forwarding on the last memorandum the necessary particulars for making me a complete & brief biographical sketch of yourself for insertion in the new "Comparative" section of "Revue".
More than 100 comparisons out of 1100 have not been supplied me with details of their biographies.

The fact will I take to be almost sufficient argument for you not treating this request with disdain. Do the reader not understandly measure the value of producing the best I can do much other I fear will give the accompanying error.
Your obedient servant
