

Huxley

Museum of Comparative Zoölogy, July/81

July 6/81

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

My dear Mr Dawson

I have your paper of Extras & of your Review of Wallace. I think you do Huxley injustice. He has no other motive except to say what he thinks true.
It seems to me it is for Huxley to reply and not you. Huxley is no stranger says so distinctly and asked the opinion of De Quincey on a matter which the whole object of Huxley was simply to print his views on first Monday & he certainly has a right to be heard on this subject which has been his hobby for some years. It is what he calls his protest against Huxley's method as far as relates to Nannoptera - above he certainly knew fully as much as he did of not now. I have no wish to make this a personal matter in our paper and I did not say of he did.

But it is high time we learned to differ without calling each other names. Yours truly
W. J. G. J. G.