

Foord
Dalhousie,
16 Aug 1881.

My dear Sir,

I duly received your letter enclosing
one for Mr Richardson.
I am sorry I cannot furnish you with his address. He left no instructions with the Post Master (of whom I enquired) about forwarding his letters.

1841
10th Sept 1841

My dear Mr. [Name]
I have the pleasure
to receive your letter of the 27th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same
has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
I am, Sir, very
truly yours,
[Name]

I kept the letter a day or two thinking he might in the meantime send us an intimation as to his address, but he has not done so. I therefore return you the letter.

I have not succeeded yet in getting any more plants. I tried today in the cliff just under the contorted beds, but could find nothing
but small fragments.
I intend working in the beds farther up the Bay tomorrow. If I succeed

I will let you know.

With kind regards

Believe me
Yours very truly
Arthur H. Foord.

Dr. J. W. Dawson, C.M.S., F.R.S.
