Dr Dawson

Dear Sir

I received your letter yesterday, and send you $45⁰⁰ enclosed, keeping $10. for express charges, &c. as I have paid out all that you had given me.

Mr Richardson was up here yesterday and finds that of five boxes arrived, one ~~was~~ sent by Mr Ford had been forwarded in mistake for one of his, and thinks that his ^{box No 11} was left in Quebec.

I gave Mr Curry the list that you sent me in your letter but the box (from Auburn) has not yet arrived.

Dear Sir

Dear Sir

I received your letter yesterday, and have just been so much interested, regarding the affairs of the company, as I have just sent out all that you had given me.

Mr. Richardson was up here yesterday and finds that if your boys arrive, we think by Mr. [unclear] has been forwarded in [unclear] one of his [unclear] thinks that [unclear] has left in [unclear].
I gave Mr. [unclear] the list that you sent me in your letter but the box (from [unclear]) has not yet arrived.

Mr Barry says. - He has plenty to do.

The masons have finished on the New Museum but the carpenters appear to be getting along very slowly.

I remain

your obedient
