Stock Broker,

13 HOSPITAL STREET.

Montreal, Aug 5 1881

My dear Sir

I have to thank you for yours of yesterday enclosing cheque for $26.95 Messrs Davis &
Fulding went with Mr Ridwell to Halifax & expressed themselves
satisfied with the title under the proposed new tenure A power of atty
has been executed & sent to Messrs Rigley & Tupper who before you get this will probably have made the surrender & taken for an extension of the bond & an expenditure of 8 to $10000- in the mining & export of the ores & from this he anticipates a profit of $20 per ton

The reply of the owners made through me in writing yesterday was that they were willing to renew the bond & allow him (Mr D.) to mine & export the ores
on his own account provided he relieved them from any expenditure whatever

To this proposition we are as yet without

answer
