Nov. 25/77

My dear Sir

My brother, of the Canada Publishing Company in Toronto is superintending the preparation of a new series of School Readers for Ontario.
In the 5th book he intends to have a series of extracts ac-cupying from 5 to 6 pages for each from the writings of Canadian authors, etc.

He writes "I would like to know what price Mr. Dorman would propose me to put into the book. I had one price selected from his 'Fossil Men' but it is too technical" He also desires me to obtain a photograph or engraving from which a portrait of you might be prepared as one of the illustrations of the book. I would have called upon you about the matter but I have been confined long bed for three days this week and am barely fit for duty.

If not putting you to too much trouble will you kindly recommend of 5 or 6 pages suitable for this advanced reader and inform me where I can obtain a portrait of you that is satisfactory
