

Boston Dec 23 81

My dear Dr Dawson

I have just given a letter to a friend of mine Mr Robert Evans, introducing him to you

Robert has been in the Service of our Church (Church of the Good Shepherd Boston) for 9 years has been Sexton all the time and latterly has been Choir leader in addition. During his stay in the Choir he has developed a very uncommon base voice. Partly through complications arising from his success while starting from the position of Sexton and partly from desire to better his position financially, he has now left us.

I understand that he is planning to visit Montreal with some sort of travelling performers. I have ventured to give him a note of introduction to you thinking that perhaps you might know of some place for which his qualities of voice would just fit him.

If you can give him any hints as to where to apply or who to see I shall be very much obliged to you.

But please do not put yourself out at all in his behalf.

Sincerely Yrs

Robert H. Richards
