

John W. Gear.

EX-GOV. WM. M. STONE, OF IOWA, PRESIDENT.

HAMILTON WHITE, SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

WESTERN MINING BUREAU,

No. 78 DEARBORN STREET,

PROPRIETORS AND PUBLISHERS OF THE "CHICAGO MINING JOURNAL."

WM. HOSEA BALLOU, Editor. and Secretary.

Chicago, May 21st 1882

Dr. J. W. Dawson,

Montreal, Ca.

Dear Sir

Some discussion has arisen as to whether or not fissure veins of importance are confined to an altitude of 10,000 feet and above. Will you oblige me and the readers of "The Chicago Mining Journal" by giving your opinion on the subject sustained if possible by several illustrations. In so doing you will confer an invaluable favor.

Very Respectfully yours,

Wm Hosea Ballou

W. H. B.

WESTERN MINING BUREAU

No. 78 DEARBORN STREET,

PROPRIETORS AND PUBLISHERS OF THE "CHICAGO MINING JOURNAL."

WM. HOSEA BULLOU, Editor and Secretary

Chicago, May 27th 1882

John P. Bean

Dr. J. W. Hanson,
Montreat, Va.

William H. Murray Jr
June 1882

Some discussion has arisen as to whether or not the various veins of importance are confined to an altitude of 10,000 feet and above. With your and the readers of the Chicago Mining Journal by giving your opinion on the subject mentioned if possible by several illustrations. We so doing you will confer an invaluable favor.

Very Respectfully yours,
Wm. Hosea Bullou
P. M.