OF CONNECTICUT.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 30 1882.

My dear Sir,

By your last letter ~~letter~~, some months since, we seemed warranted to entertain at least a faint hope that you might lecture in Hartford the coming season. Will it be practicable for you to give a short course before the middle of April? The compensation shall be satisfactory and the audience the best that our city can furnish.

Yours very respectfully,
Wm Thompson.
