

My dear Dr. Dawson.

I wish very much that I could accept your kind invitation to dinner tomorrow, but I have the ill luck to be under medical orders to forego all such pleasures for the present, and have just declined another agreeable invitation for the same day. I shall, however, take great pleasure in calling to pay my respects to Mrs. Dawson and am, with many regrets,

Yours very sincerely
F. Parkman
