REFERENCE.

Montreal, July 19th 1883

My dear Sir: I return you the Circular which as far as I can judge covers every point. I might mention however that with the existing Liquor Law in the North West Alcohol cannot be introduced for any purpose nor if permitted would it be advisable for you to send any unless medicated. Even then I could not undertake to distribute it with any assurance of success owing to the difficulties of Transport.
Thanking you for the Ticket & copy of Proceedings, I am yours faithfully,
W. Dawson Esq. J. W. Graham
