

Dr. Dawson,
My dear Sir,

I spoke to the man Clemens, son of one of the Amarons. He told me he would write home about it, and that he expected to have an answer in three days - Saturday. I then told him to write you at once an answer and take it to the college - He promised me to do it.

Very truly yours
J. P. Darcy

Kumbha
V. D. a
Lef 103

[Faint, mirrored handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]