Dear Sir, Yours of the 9th received and we send you five copies of Science containing the article on the meeting of the British Association. It has been our custom to allow our contributors any number of copies they may desire at five cents each i.e. at just one-third of regular price and at actually less than cost. We shall be pleased to continue this arrangement at these rates for any future numbers you may wish.

Very truly yours
