My Dear Sir:

Absence from home has prevented earlier acknowledgment of your kind favour of the 12th instant.

The pleasure of seeing your collection is one that I have had in anticipation for a long time and I shall take advantage of the first opportunity to accept your kind invitation.

I will be happy to have you look over my own collection when I get it unpacked. You may possibly find a few things of interest
there.

Yours very truly
