Principal of McGill University ~

Dear Sir

I thank you very much for your kind offer. I wrote to Messrs Gilpin, & Poole, & they have both replied that they will have much pleasure in signing the recommendation. I enclose Mr Poole's letter, which if not in correct form, he will alter.

At present I will not compound. The admission, & annual fees I presume are in Sterling, & not Canadian currency. If you will kindly let me know in whose favor the P. O. Order, or Bank draft, (whichever, you consider most convenient) is to be drawn,

I will forward it to you -

I expect to leave here for my vacation next week, & shall probably spend a week or so at Parraboro, & Five Islands, & then return here & go to Chester at the head of Mahone Bay - which place I am told is ^{one} of the most charming spots in Nova Scotia - I need the change, as I think I have had a sufficiency of worry to last me for a while.

Thanking you for your kindness
I remain

Sincerely Yours
Geo. L. Kennedy
