Dear Sir William,

Your very kind gift of Laurentians and Cambrians arrived just as I was starting on a foiril-deer hunt in the Eastern Counties, and I have delayed writing to Thank you for the trial by return. They are a valuable addition to our museum.

I am glad to hear such a good account of my Canadian friends. I for one shall never forget their delicate and friendly courtesies.

With all good wishes for the New Year, to you & Lady Danvers, I —

de- Sir William

Your truly

Sir William Jackson 1st. Maj.

P.S. Please has just lost his only son a fine young Oxford man - do I not see?
