Sir William,

I have much pleasure in sending you a copy of Part I of the Journal and Proceedings of the Hamilton Association.

Will you kindly inform me whether you will allow your name to be placed before the Council of the Association for election as an honorary member.

In the Journal sent you will find the Constitution and By Laws of showing the object of the Association and the methods to be adopted to attain the ends aimed at.

Yours
Sir William,

Your obedient servant

W. D. Wilson,

Corresponding Secretary
