

The Religious Tract Society
56, Paternoster Row,

London April 14 1885
E.C.

My dear Sir

I shall be very glad indeed to have from Mr S on the subject you name as soon as you are able to send
it. It is not certainly collected in the manner suggested

in 2 volumes, would form a most valuable addition to the Series.

I may say, I usually take my autumn
holiday in August;
so that if I am most sane time in July or early September

I should attend to it at once and put it
it forward. I should be very glad if you could send it in July
so that it might be ready for the best publishing season here viz October.

There is one point

I ask contributors

Keep in mind in writing the facts - the avoidance of any kind of apology or brief treatment, of any express reference which shall ~~be~~ the limitations and conditions of the fact are are obvious they discuss the subjects as completely as these permit and the facts of a matter are worth and that is much with many thanks. Ever truly
In a desire - John Kelly