

Private

1157 Dorchester Street,

Montreal.

21st April
1885

My dear Mr. Mansel Dawson Your note under private cover, of yesterday I have I have in acknowledgment and beg to assure you that personally I shall ^{be my duty} look it up before I see Mr. B. Dawson in any way I can, while as one of the executives of the Canadian Pacific Ry Co, I have no doubt that my colleagues and I shall and it will be in the interests of the Company to have every consideration for him in any such changes as you you have heard are likely to take place. I mentioned the matter to some of my friends yesterday and will ^{soon} go to Mr. P. P. and Mr. Van Horne on their return from Ottawa, or rather when I get back from New York, which will likely be on Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Believe me
Sincerely yours
Doubtless yours

D. A. Smith
Notes

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]