Dear Sir William,

I have this day forwarded by the Canadian Express Co. a parcel received from Prof. Williamson some little time ago, but detained here in anticipation of other consignments for you, hence the delay.

Mr. Moore is at present on the Continent where he has been ordered for the benefit of his health and he directed me to forward the above by Allan Ho but I found on calling there today that they do not take any parcels so small as the one I have sent;

it is under five inches square & will be sent by the Sarmatian tomorrow.

I am Dear Sir William

Yours most Respectfully

Richard Paden
