NAPLES.

My dear Sir

I was very pleased to hear from you. I regret you will not be at other-deen for the B. Assoc. this year as I hope to be there.

I shall be very pleased family to receive anything from Prof Harrington but perhaps if you were writing to him you would kindly ask him either to keep them till I am in England (if he stays) or to send them to my friend

Mr B. B. Woodward
23 Bateman Gardens
West Kensington Park
London

Hoping yourself and family are well and again thanking you for your kindness

I remain

Yours respectfully &
Sincerely

H. J. Johnston Esq

Louis
