Dear Sir William:-

We shall be glad to let you have the electrotypes of the cuts for which you ask; we would send you the originals for you to make the cuts, but fear there might be some trouble in the custom house on one side or the other <sup>which</sup> ~~of~~ their return, and so we will have them made here for you, at an expense probably not exceedingly a dollar, and will send them to you by express.

Yours very truly,

Dictated.
