

Melland Reade
Canning Chambers,

4. South John Street.

Liverpool, Dec 15 1885

My dear Sir

I had just posted the Address on the N. Atlantic when I recd yours post card acknowledging the previous papers sent.

I did not know of Hunt's enquiries when I wrote the Address referred to. When I did see them I found they were not at the points - the river where my cables
- later reported them - I therefore have had samples.

taken off into Mustard which when analysed I hope will be an additional help. It is possible the analysis given is only a repetition of that
- I quote it as given.

- I have written numerous letters respecting the Adams
- some & got very little information as far as

Thank you for your report on the Adams Express I will send you my report &

Yours faithfully
J. G. Kendall Reade
