Dear Sir William Dawson.

Your kind note of invitation reached me this morning and it grieves much that I cannot give you a definite reply. My wife is still unable to leave her bed & I fear we may not be able to get away from here until to reach Montreal by 22nd. & in any case she will not be able to be with me. If I do come to Montreal as I get trust I may I will with pleasure accept your kind invitation to stay with you. I will send you word the moment I know anything definite with regard to my visit to Montreal.

My wife begs me to thank you & Lady Dawson for your kindness with kindest regards

Believe me.

Yrs. Sincerely.
