Shubroke 10th March 1806.

My dear Sir William

Dr Kelley was good enough to send me the invitation to attend the meeting of the Teachers' Assn. on the 26th and I will attend if possible.

Mr Relford has not yet returned me my rough copy of the Amendments to the School Law. but I hope to receive it in a day or two.

I thought we ought to make it public. but he has consulted Mr Lynch & Mr. Osmond on this point. and they do not

Do not show my views -
At all events I can see no harm in giving an outline of our views to the Teachers' Association - even if we abstain from publishing it through the Convention.

I hope you like the course some of of the L. J. press. ~~and~~ & particularly of the Waterloo paper. The Protestant Journal an denoument - as a do-nothing incompetent reveal body - who hold office simply to further the University interests. and Mr.
Master and Archdeacon Leidsay are called upon to leave the body and escape Contagion.

Yours very truly
D. M. Hewitt
