BIRMINGHAM MEETING, 1886.

HOSPITALITY
AND LODGINGS.

8, NEWHALL STREET,

BIRMINGHAM,

20 July 1886

Dear Sir,

Some little time ago I received through Dr. Crosskey several names of probable Canadian visitors which had been sent to him by you.

As I find some difficulty in locating people about whom I know very little or nothing, I am venturing to send, on the other side, a note of a few of these names, should be greatly obliged if you would be so kind as to make any note thereto as to age, whether coming alone or otherwise, & in fact any detail that will aid me in obtaining suitable invitations. Of course everything you say will be considered as private. I make a note of these personal matters in a book which no one uses but myself.

Apologizing for troubling you,
Yours faithfully,

Sir William Dawson.
