

Somerſet Lodge,

Wimbleton Common.

My dear Mr William -

I wish to introduce to you Col Elliot, a new relative of mine by marriage.
He is a Brother of Sir William Elliot of Woolſee well known to Science but now too infirm to attend the Meetings of the British

Apportionment -

82

Ellis has been an member for several years.

I hope we may still meet in London before you return to Canada.
but my instruments have become more expensive
in consequence of Post Davidson having had a serious attack of illness from which she has not yet recovered -

With kind remembrances
to Lady Dawson.

I remain
Yours very truly
Edwin Fox
