REV. SAMUEL C. GREEN, D.D.

London, Aug 30 1886
E.C.

My dear Sir William Dawson.

On my return to work today after my holiday, I found your note and Mr S. I write at present just to say that 16 lbs is about half the length of the shortest of the Present Day Tracts.
Do you think you could expand it at your

Revere. taking on our time to complete it.

I shall read the MS carefully and any suggestion that occurs to me for expansion I will take the liberty of making.

I have been in Switzerland since the end of July & returned to London on Saturday evening.

During the remainder of our stay in England & particularly during the meetings of the Brit Association I should be sorry to trouble
you about this matter
with many thanks

I remain

faithfully yours
John Kelly
