

My dear Mr. William

I am afraid
I went a little beyond my commission
considering the very tender personal acquaintance I have the honor to boast
of - ~~the~~ but I quickly tried personal impression from being

Hawes
Chy 186

Slight indications
and seldom find myself wrong in the general outlines of character & individuality.

I have some idea
of running up to Birmingham for the opening day - Can you get me a seat on the platform - I shall do some special correspondence for the Edinburgh Gazette there in R. H. Hawes.
