London, E.C. Sept. 10th 1886.

Dear Sir: On behalf of the Editor of the Fortnightly Review, I write to ask if you will be kind enough to consent to contribute an article for a forthcoming number of that Magazine. A paper by you would, I need hardly say, be read with extreme interest and would be highly appreciated; and I trust that you will therefore assent to this proposition. A line to the office of the Fortnightly Review, Henrietta Street Court Garden will reach me.

I am Dear Sir
Yours faithfully
fr. Frank Harris.
Editor Fortnightly Review.
