Dear Sir,

I have yours of Oct. 15 & am sorry to hear of the misunderstanding about the numbers of Periodicals.

Sir Dr. Dawson handed me one list of your desiderata—the first part of English periodicals & the latter part of Foreign.

I told Sir William at once I could not obtain the prices at which the Foreign nos. could be obtained—as my correspondents would not take the trouble to reply unless I gave the order to supply the nos. Sir William at once instructed me to order the numbers & I did so; but I did not get them here before Sir William left therefore he only paid for the English ones I had obtained by his order & he instructed me to send the Foreign ones direct to you when received

I had trouble in getting what I did & the publications would be simply waste paper to me, I hope you will therefore find a means of utilizing them - or perhaps your other agent may have better facilities of receiving you of these he supplies?

With regard to your list of duplicates - they have no commercial value; but they might sell for a little more here than in Canada. Anything you choose to send to me - I will dispose of for you.

Your obedient servant

Bernard Quaritch
