Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your kind letter of the 15th inst and, I, of course, shall be prepared to deliver the lectures on Jan 2d and 9th
on the conditions stated.

I shall also be happy to accept your kind hospitality, as the

understand that I am to be merely a
flying visitor, coming
on Saturday and
leaving as early
as possible on Monday,
and requiring a quiet
time to think over
what I have to say.

Perhaps the best
title of the lectures
will be as follows:—

6 The Power, Wisdom
and Goodness of God,
as manifested in the Physical History of the Earth and its
preparation for Man.

Should I feel
hindered in taking over the ~~subject~~ ^{matter} - any need for a slight change of subject - I shall inform you - Sincerely yours
M. Dawson
