

Sir W. Dawson. L. L. C.

Dear Sir:

Your kind note duly received. I thank you very much not only for your highly excellent recommendation, but also for your kind promise to mention the subject to Mr. White.

I very much hesitate in asking another favor so soon, as rather a repetition of the present, but if it is not presuming on your civility, will you be so kind as to inclose me a strong personal recommendation to Mr. White.

The member for Kent, Mr. Smyth, whom I saw to-day has advised me to ask you for this, which he would take to Mr. White whom he also knows, hoping that the combined influence would effect something.

Regretting to trouble you, I am most respectfully yours
