My dear Sir:

Your article on Primitive Man is in type for next week's paper. I have just finished its reading in "proof"; and I want to thank you again for its writing.

It is quite complete, as well as thorough. I have been instructed in its reading, and I feel that it will be of great service to very many. I count it one of the most important and most valuable papers ever prepared for The Sunday School Times; and so, I think, it will be deemed by our more intelligent readers generally.

Yours sincerely

Sir J. William Dawson
