Boston Jan 2nd 1887.

Dear Sir,

My cousin wrote
from Montreal that you would like to know of a pleasant boarding house,
to go to, instead of staying at a hotel, which in Boston.

I knew of only one
Miss Putnam No. 36.
Commonwealth av. -
and thought it might possibly be of use to you to have the address Miss Putnam is a friend of my mother and I think has a very pleasant house

and very few people
at his house.

Hoping that I may meet you and Lady Dawson.

Very respectfully yours
C. W. Penhallow

To
Sir William Dawson
