My dear Mr. William,

You will I know - with us all deeply deplore our unexpected and severe loss in the removal of Judge Torrance from this scene below - no one can better estimate than you yourself the great loss our University has sustained, and the unreassuring interest he has taken in our college affairs, and the unremitting attention to his duties as a founder can never be surpassed if ever equalled again - notify the University, which I have done this afternoon, according unavoidable absence, but your engagement as Pastor at this time is generally known by the papers & other wise - Trusting
