

Boston 21st July 87

My dear Sir,

I thank you for your kind note & for the book, which is probably awaiting me at the house, & which I shall enjoy reading.

We seem to be a great way apart, but I trust that the year may not go by without our meeting either in Montreal or Boston.

The address you desire is

John Ropes Esq.

99 m^t Vernon Street

Boston.

with kind remembrances to Lady Dawson & to your daughter

Newain

Yours sincerely

Augustus Lowell
