Dear Sir William

His Excellency will be glad to visit McGill University on Tuesday next the 22nd inst at 3.30 p.m o'clock, if that day and hour is convenient.

Lord Lansdowne wishes me to express to you his regrets that he should be obliged to give such short notice, but his time is so much taken up, and his engagements next next week are so numerous that Tuesday is the only day at present, on which he thinks he can make sure of accepting your kind invitation

I should thus arrangements meet your wishes - I should be much obliged if you will forward to me, for His Excellency's information, a copy of the address to be presented to him

Believe me

Yrs truly

Henry Streatfeild
