My Dear Sir William

I am not sure if Dr George is still in Ottawa.
If he is, please forward
the enclosed to him;
and ask him to send
it on to Mr Horatio Hale, Clinton, Onto.

If he has already
left Ottawa, return it to me. Pardon my troubling you thus.

We are still in the throes of a new University Bill. A very mongrel affair I fear it will prove, at best a mere half-way to better things hereafter. I got back from the Legislative Assembly late last night, after long deliberation over details. Night work puts me off my sleep

now, and makes the next day's lecturing doubly hard.

Sybil had a letter
lately from Anna
who I grieve to learn has had worse
Cares in her little domestic University.
She has taken to the degree of A.M. (Anxious Moth!) By, and by she will worthily earn a
higher degree.
My love to her,
Yours faithfully
Dan. Wilson
