My dear Sir William Dawson

I am glad to read of your publication
I send you an advance copy, and ten copies, together with those you ordered in addition will be sent to you very soon.
Publishing day is the 24th, I shall see what can be done with reference to using your note in the

Had we it is omitted, I shall enquire whether we cannot contrive to insert it in the first edition. This may, of course, be impracticable.

The tract is stereotyped.
What can be done
I shall be done.

Ever faithfully

John Kelly
