Dear Sir William

I am very sorry that I should inadvertently have been the cause of giving you or Mr. Fenwick the trouble of going up to Mrs. Jonance's yesterday.

I got your note when very much engaged and supposed that if you did not hear from me you were not to go. I did not notice that it read just the other way.

Again apologising for my mistake I am

Yours sincerely
John L. Morris.

Dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th inst. in relation to the above named case. I have conferred with my colleagues and we are of the opinion that the best course to pursue is to file a motion for a writ of habeas corpus. I have accordingly prepared the necessary papers and have filed them with the Court. I have also filed a copy of your letter with the Court. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant.
