Sir William Dawson,
McGill College
City

Dear Sir:-

We are about to publish a special number of The Star in honor of Her Majesty's jubilee. It is intended to be somewhat the same character as the Christmas and Carnival numbers of The Star specimens of which I send you herewith. We shall be very glad if you can spare time to contribute an article for this issue, upon your own terms. The subject I would suggest is a review of the progress made in the domain of Science within the past half-century. An article of about 2000 words would be most convenient and we are anxious to get all the copy in for this issue by May 5th as the time at our disposal is brief may I beg the favor of an early

Yours truly
