8th April 1887

My Dear Mr William

I have replied to the enclosed nearly in the terms suggested by you.

Our University Bill
has passed the first reading.
If it gets through the house unchanged, we shall be able to work it satisfactorily I think.
But I await with anxiety the dangers

it has to encounter in running the gauntlet
of a set of Country M.P.s who with the best intentions, will make the most absurd
changes; or under the influence of designing lobbies will cripple and mutilate it. At best, it is but a compromise.

Yours in great haste
Dau. Wilson
