Sir you Dawson. C.M.G. &c

Dear Sir;

The people of the District of Beauhar-
-nois have decided to cel-ebrate the Jubilee of Her Majesty by a pic-nic at this place on July 1st.
I have been requested by the Committee to invite you to deliver an address on that occasion. I am sorry the notice should be so short, but am confident the address

Sir Your Son-in-law C.M.P. Jr

Dear Sir;

The people of the District of Columbia have been desirous to elect the father of the Republic as their representative in all this place on July 21.
I have been requested by
the Committee to invite
on that occasion. I am sorry the matter shows before that but our

would not suffer thereby, if you could only make it convenient to deliver it - It would be really a great favour to us all: & in such an educational centre as Huntingdon your name, Sir, is a household word. Could I ask a reply to Huntingdon by tomorrow's mail?
Hoping, Sir, you may see your way to accede to our request, & thus confer a favour on the people of Huntingdon,

I am, Sir,

your obedient Servant
