

London, July 21st 1887

Dear Sir Mr Dawson.

Your favor of the 18th in reference to changing the name of Universis St., reached me yesterday.

So far as I can learn, I do not think it is designed to do away with the name of Universis St. in favor of Hanover.

The statement in the paper, appears to have been the result of a printer's error, by which the names were transposed. Nevertheless, in order to place our protest on record in case it may be needed, I have arranged with Mr. Boynes to send a formal protest to Mr. Nelson, who is our representative in the Council. I will also see that such other

steps as are needed,
are taken in season
to secure what we claim.

Mr. Redford was at the College this morning. I endeavored to point out to him
the various improvements recently made, with all of which he appeared to be very much
