My dear Sir William

I have just received a letter from Crossley Bros Manchester about the Otto engine, but will you believe it, the careless writer does not mention either price or time of delivery, altho' these were the real questions asked.

I have written to them to supply the information at once. what trouble careless people give, I hope you are all well, we are altho' the temperature is now 92° near here.

Yours Respectfully
John A. Rolston.

P.S. I have heard anything from Frank Redpath about Lawson.
