

Hodder

July 1897

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,

EXPOSITOR LONDON.

27, Paternoster Row,

London, 28 Dec 1887

E.C.

Dear Sir William Dawson

I have to thank you for your recent letters & returned proofs to. Seeing you were anxious to have the Appendix we telegraphed to you that we would include it with the work, therefore your letter just received suggesting separate publication, does not require to be dealt with.

We have obtained a promise from the R. S. Society to supply the electros.

Please fill in explanatory lines to illustrations.

The apparent confusion with proofs is owing to our having sent duplicates at your request, (in case of loss through mail)

We will return the unused cuts.

As we have announced the work for some time past, it will be desirable to get it out
as soon as we can
The proofs leave by tonight's mail

With best New Year wishes

I believe me
Yours Sincerely
M. A. Hodder

Sir William Dawson & Co

As we have announced the
work for some time past it
will be desirable to get it out
as soon as we can
The proof is ready to be sent with the first number

Wm. W. Wood
James Wood
W. W. Wood
J. William Wood

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS

EXPOSITOR LONDON.

Patentee, London, E.C.

John
Latham

London, 25th Dec 1887

E.C.

Dear Sir,
 I have to thank you for your recent letter & returned thanks to being you were anxious to see the apparatus we telegraph to you that we would include it in the book, therefore your letter just received affecting the publication, also not separate be sent with.
 We have obtained a promise from the D. B. Co. to supply the electric apparatus in explanatory lines to the apparatus.
 The apparatus is with proof is coming to our hands sent duplicate of your report in case of loss through mail would return the unused copy.