William Brown

Dear Sir

We are getting up a dramatic performance for the benefit of St Margarets Home and beg that you and Lady Brown will allow us to add your names to our list of patrons.
 We have already Sir Isaac and Lady Smith Sir George and Lady Stephen Esq<sup>r</sup> C. Webb

Mr. P. Schould
 like to report the ladies in spirit
 will occasionally make
 Mr. P. Schould
 P.D.

Miss

Mr Geo. Hammond and ~~most~~ the leading clergymen and physicians.

The play is a simple little drawing room drama
"Emuella" which came out in the Century.

The performance will be in the Big Library on the 22d prox. The performers are young people of our first families. Their names appear in my letter in Saturday's Empire.

Mr. J. Flood <sup>M. P. for</sup> <sup>Wilmington</sup> ~~Basin~~ will deliver a lecture on "The History of Commons as I know it" in the Lynd Hall on the 1st Feb. which I hope you will be good enough to attend. Sir Donald will preside and the Bishop will move the vote of thanks.

Mr. Larin was anxious to meet you when he was with us last autumn that was why I took the liberty of sending you an invitation to my "at-home" in his honor.

Would you kindly put my name <sup>Dobbie</sup> ~~McDonald~~ on your College list of Press admissions as I am a regular correspondent for ten leading papers in Canada and the States besides two Londoning papers I can give the College much prominence through my notices, and would when possible attend anything of note that might be going on.

I am sure you will be glad to know that an old Normal school girl is succeeding as well as a journalist. Strange to say I began to work on the papers to help my husband, and now that I can make a good income he does not require any help, as he is making a fortune himself. However, the work is fascinating and I must keep it up. Hoping that you may feel inclined to give us your patronage. Believe me yours respectfully Miss Dobbie
