

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS.

EXPOSITOR LONDON.

27. Paternoster Row.

London, 15th Mch 1888

E.C.

Dear Sir William Dawson

Your letter, cablegram & proof of Chap 7 have only arrived. I am very sorry. The printers have been so dilatory with proofs but there was so much ^{out} at one time that they were stopped for type. We are promised however that Chap 8 shall be sent this week & remainder of book, next.

With kind regards,

I Believe me

Yours Sincerely

M. A. Hodder

Sir I William Dawson R.S. &c

Allen

Exhibitor London. 88/1000

London, 12th Feb 1888

E.C.

Dear Mr. William Dawson

Your letter, calling for the proofs of the 7th issue only arrived. I am very sorry the printer has been so delayed with proofs but there was no need, at one time that they were stopped for the 10th are promised however that the 8th shall be sent this week
The number of books, read

With this regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely

W. A. Allen

Mr. William Dawson