To Sir William Dawson C.M.G.
L.D., F.R.S. Pres. McGill University.

Dear Sir,

In regard to the matter which you were kind enough to lay before me some little time ago, I have come to the conclusion that it would be wiser for me not to become a candidate for the post, although the work would be much to my liking. I am desirous of devoting myself as far as I am able to English literature and History so as to fit myself for the position of English teacher or professor in even more advanced work than I am doing

at present if such a position should be opened to me.

I thank you very heartily for all your kindness to me, not only in the present instance, but for the very many times in which your wisdom
and sympathy have been extended to me.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Georgia Hunter.
